Exam Entries

Your subject teachers will let the Exams Office know what exams you will be entered for and where appropriate (ie Maths, Science and MFL) whether you will be entered for Foundation or Higher GCSE. For public exams, you will be issued with a Candidate Statement of Entry within a month of the official entry deadline so that you can check that you have been entered for the exams you expect and make changes if required.

Candidate Timetables

Two weeks before the exam season starts you (and your parents/carers) will receive a copy of your personalised Candidate Timetable via email, so please check your school Outlook account. You must let Mrs Gibson in the Exams Office know of any issues you have with your allocated exam seat/space as soon as possible. Please do not wait until the day of the exam to report such issues as it may not be possible to resolve immediately.

Access Arrangements

Candidates who have JCQ approved Access Arrangements will be informed of their arrangements before the exam season starts and will be given the opportunity to discuss them or any other special requirements with SEND and the Exams Office at a pre-arranged meeting.

Arrival Times

Formal Exam Conditions – what does it mean?

From the moment you walk into the exam room until the moment you leave, you must comply with Formal Exam Conditions. Failure to do so will result in being reported for malpractice

- Be on time
- No unauthorised materials/smart devices
- Follow the instructions of the invigilator at all times
- Do not sit an exam in the name of another candidate
- Do not communicate with or disturb/disrupt other candidates ie. NO TALKING OR TURNING TO FACE OTHER CANDIDATES
- Do not get involved with dishonest practice
- Raise your hand if you need to speak to an invigilator

What you bring into the Exam Room

See checklist Preparing To Sit Your Exams 2026-27

Only bring what you NEED for the exam in your CLEAR pencil case. NO SCISSORS, NO GLUE STICKS

Invigilators will check your pencil cases if they are excessively filled.

Ie. If you don't need a calculator for the exam, don't bring a calculator. Here's what we suggest:-

- 2 x BLACK pens (not gel pens) – all exams
- 1 x pencil (Maths, Geography, Design Tech (Resistant Materials),)
- 1 x eraser (Maths, Geography, Design Tech (Resistant Materials),)
- Calculator (Maths Papers F1/F3/H4/H6, Geography, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, RM, Business)
- Ruler (Maths, Geography, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, RM)
- Geometrical instruments eg. Protractor, Compass – removed from casing (Maths, RM)
- 1 x highlighter – all exams (just to highlight questions, not answers)
- 1 x bottle of water in a clear transparent bottle with no labelling – coloured/opaque bottles will be confiscated.

Water Bottles in Exams

Must be clear, with no labels. Large opaque tops are not advised as these could conceal unauthorised items and may be checked by invigilators.

Your Exam Paper

DO NOT open your exam paper until you are instructed to do so by the Invigilator.

If you open it before being told to do so, this will be reported as malpractice.

You need to fill in your LEGAL candidate name in CAPITAL LETTERS so that it can be read clearly by the examiner.

Leaving the Exam Room During the Exam

It is a formal JCQ regulation that candidates are not allowed to leave the exam room unsupervised. In order to minimise the level of disruption during the exam you are kindly asked to observe to the following:-

Candidates who leave the exam room without first asking permission from an invigilator will be followed. Only candidates who have remained under exam supervision will be permitted back into the exam room.

Toilet Breaks and Supervised Rest Breaks

- Candidates are reminded to go to the toilet BEFORE an exam starts
- Toilet breaks will NOT BE ALLOWED within the FIRST HOUR, or the LAST QUARTER HOUR of the exam UNLESS a candidate has informed the Exams Office, in advance, of an existing medical condition
- Candidates with authorised supervised rest breaks will be able to leave the exam as defined by SEND.

Candidates who complete the exam early are not permitted to leave the exam room until the exam is officially finished and scripts are collected. Candidates who have extra time but do not wish to take all or some of it, can leave the exam room from the official finish time onwards. Their time of finishing will be logged by the invigilator

Exam Emergency Procedures

If we need to use these procedures during an exam, invigilators will direct you to the designated Exam Muster Points:

- Fire: The Muster Points will be at either end of the Senior Cage.
- Hazardous Threat: The Muster Point will be on the field.

You must remain silent while walking to the Muster Point and while lining up, as you are still under exam conditions.

Line up in your Tutor Groups so your Tutor can quickly find you and register you as present.

Malpractice

Details of how malpractice may affect you can be found in the following documents linked below:-

- Malpractice
- Artificial Intelligence & Assessments
- Use of Calculators in Exams

Examples of Candidate Malpractice (Source JCQ Malpractice 2026/27 p.43)

- the alteration or falsification of any results document, including certificates, or using or allowing the use of any such altered or falsified document;
- a breach of the instructions or advice of an invigilator, supervisor, or the awarding body in relation to the examination or assessment rules and regulations;
- the unauthorised use of alternative electronic devices or technology during remote assessment and remote invigilation;
- accessing the internet, online materials or AI tools during remote assessment and remote invigilation, where this is not permitted;
- failing to abide by the conditions of supervision designed to maintain the security of the examinations or assessments;
- collusion: working collaboratively with others, beyond what is permitted;
- copying from another candidate (including the use of technology to aid the copying);
- allowing work to be copied, e.g. posting work on social networking sites prior to an examination/assessment;
- the deliberate destruction of another candidate's work;
- disruptive behaviour in the examination room or during an assessment session (including the use of offensive language);
- failing to report to the centre or awarding body the candidate having unauthorised access to assessment related information or sharing unauthorised assessment related information online;
- exchanging, obtaining, receiving, passing on information (or the attempt to) which could be assessment related by means of talking or electronic, written or non-verbal communication;
- making a false declaration of authenticity in relation to the authorship of controlled assessment, coursework, non-examination assessment or the contents of a portfolio;
- allowing others to assist in the production of controlled assessments, coursework, nonexamination assessments, examination responses or assisting others in the production of controlled assessments, coursework, non-examination assessments or examination responses;
- the misuse, or the attempted misuse, of examination and assessment materials and resources (e.g. exemplar materials);
- being in possession of unauthorised confidential information about an examination or assessment;
- bringing into the examination room notes in the wrong format (where notes are permitted in examinations) or inappropriately annotated texts (in open book examinations);
- the inclusion of offensive comments, obscenities or drawings; discriminatory language, remarks or drawings directed at an individual or group in scripts, controlled assessments, coursework, non-examination assessments or portfolios;
- personation: pretending to be someone else for fraudulent purposes, arranging for another person to take one's place in an examination or an assessment;
- plagiarism: unacknowledged copying from, or reproduction of, third party sources or incomplete referencing (including the internet and artificial intelligence (AI) tools);
- theft of another candidate's work;
- being in possession (whether used or not) of unauthorised material during an examination or assessment, such as: notes, study guides and personal organisers, own blank paper, calculators (when prohibited), dictionaries (when prohibited), watches, instruments which can capture a digital image, electronic dictionaries (when prohibited), translators, wordlists, glossaries, iPods, mobile phones, AirPods, smart glasses, smart devices, MP3/4 players, pagers, or other similar electronic devices;
- the unauthorised use of a memory stick or similar device where a candidate uses a word processor;
- facilitating malpractice on the part of other candidates;
- behaving in a manner so as to undermine the integrity of the examination

Additional Contact Information Required From You

At the end of Year 11, you will no longer have access to your school email account. However, there may still be times when we need to contact you after you have officially left Warneford — for example, about your exam results, post-results services, appeals or certificates.

While we can contact your parents or carers if needed, these matters are about you, so it's important that we can contact you directly and keep you included in any relevant correspondence.

Please take a moment to complete the Microsoft Form by clicking here. This will make sure we have the correct contact details for you and can stay in touch when needed.

Results Days

Mock exams results will be distributed via subject teachers or will form part of your Tracker Reports

Official public exams results will be available to collect from the school on Thursday 19th August 2027.

Results can be emailed to you but you must provide a personal email address in advance (see above).

Post Results Services

Post Results Services (PRS) are offered by all exam boards and allow for exam papers to be checked and/or reviewed in case of concerns over an awarded grade.

Initially, candidates should discuss any such concerns with their subject teacher or the appropriate head of department to see if a clerical check or a review of marking is necessary.

Such services will need to be applied for by the candidate (not a relative) and fees will be applicable. Further details will be available in June.
