

British Values in Careers Education Independent Advice and Guidance (CEIAG)

The CEIAG curriculum at Highworth Warneford School actively promotes fundamental British values in many ways, including:

Actively promoting equality and diversity and working towards the removal of barriers to personal achievement resulting from prejudice, stereotyping and discrimination.

- Encouraging individual autonomy in making decisions and always acting in the students' best interests.
 - Giving information on careers, labour market opportunities and interview requirements with impartiality and transparency.
 - Encouraging students to challenge views that oppose fundamental British values in a way that promotes an ethos of respect.
